ULMER IS Free Trips to Erin Arouse Big Interest

Lawyer Whose Flowers Got Justice in Trouble Tries to Flirt With Policewoman

Attorney W. Edwin Ulmer, whose gifts of flowers to Justice Edward P. Pierce of the Supreme Court, recently led to his own disbarment in the Federal Court and the indictment of Justice Pierce, was in today for passing another line of flowers.

On the complaint of Policewoman Irene C. Lynch, who arrested him at Washington and Winter streets after, she said, she had watched him outline several young lady shoppers, he was booked at head quarters as a suspicious person. He was then released.

Today Inspector William H. Patton appeared before Judge David A. Loring, in Municipal Court, and asked for a warrant for the arrest of Ulmer on the charge of annoying and molesting.

Attorney Clarence W. Bowley, counsel for Ulmer, requested a continuance on the warrant hearing until Wednesday, which was granted.

Policewoman Lynch stated that at her witnessing Ulmer's alleged attempts to make the acquaintance of a couple of girls, she followed him, whereupon he transferred his attentions to her.

The test of interest in the welfare of Ireland and Babies undertaken by the Boston American is going to be a hummer.

Since the announcement of the plan last Saturday, there have been so many requests for explanations of the conditions which will govern the test that it is quite evident the people of New England do love the "Old Sod" and little child.

One of the requests for information was about the eligibility of school teachers for selection as correspondents. They are eligible. In fact, they are especially qualified by reason of their education and training to write what they see and hear not only in an interesting manner, but in a way that will bring out the truth clearly and intelligently.

OPEN TO ALL RACES.
The trip, as it happens, comes just at the right time for school teachers, most of whom start their Summer's vacation in the middle of June, which is the time set for the departure for Ireland of the truth seekers. A better vacation for an educator could hardly be imagined than this itinerary which the Boston American has arranged, inasmuch as it is planned to sail from Boston between June 15 and 20, to remain in Ireland about six weeks, visiting every section of it and arriving back home the early part of August.

One of the other requests was as to whether the candidates must be of Irish descent. Not a bit of it. It is continued on Page 17, Column 3.

ASKS NEW TRIAL FOR FINN AND LANE

Attorney John P. Peasey today started arguments for a new trial for Robert L. Finn and Humphrey Lane before Judge Bishop in Superior Court. Finn and Lane were convicted of the larceny of $157,860 from the Federal Trust Company along with Paul Downey, note clerk, who confessed taking the bank funds and paying to Finn and Lane in payment of gambling debts. Downey lost his seatings on the horses and at dice. The government declared that they conspired to cheat Downey and thus get him to commit larceny.

MARILYN AND PICKFORD ARE ESTRANGED

JACK PICKFORD AND HIS BRIDE

Estranged by frequent ill, the former Marilyn Miller and her youthful husband, brother of Mary Pickford, have not seen each other since Christmas. Upward bills for wedding gifts and jealousy on Pickford's part are ascribed to the rift.

TRY TO ENLIST KLAN AGAINST PURNELL

Grand Rapids, Mich., March 25.—Quinto Rosetta, formerly a member of the House of David colony, testifying for the defense today in the suit brought by Mr. and Mrs. John W. Hannel, to recover $30,000 from the suit, declared that Mrs. Esther Hannel, star witness for the plaintiffs, endeavored to enlist the aid of the Ku Klux Klan in Detroit, against the House of David.

"He accused her of endeavoring to make the colony and trying to persuade him to join a conspiracy, the basis of which would be false charges of immoral relations with Benjamin Purnell."

"She said she would sever Benjamin's relations with her were immoral," she said, adding that the charge was untrue. Rosetta testified, she said, that there was no danger of arrest on a conspiracy charge because "they" had a hard time proving it."

Rosetta, a brother of Emil J. Rosetta, who testified for the plaintiffs last week, said he left the colony in 1915.

In 1915, he testified, Esther Hannel came to his home in Cleveland and told him of a plan to molest the House of David. She told him, he said, of attending Ku Klux Klan meetings in Detroit.

"She said she had to go through three acts of locked doors to get into the meeting hall," he said. "She stood about the doors with revolvers in their belts."

Rosetta also testified to conditions in the colony, declaring he had been told and well clothed while a member of the cult.

Telegraph Briefs

Somerville, N. J.—A difficult engineering task was accomplished in twenty-five minutes without interrupting traffic on the South branch of the Central Railroad of New Jersey when the 200-foot two-span bridge over the Hartman River was moved sixteen feet in new concrete abutments. A large crowd witnessed the work.

Chicago.—Mrs. Agnes Barber, seventy years old, jumped from a third-story window of her burning house into a policeman's overcoat. The coat was ripped apart. Mrs. Barber sustained a broken leg. Mrs. Marie Mitchell jumped from a second-story window, alighting on a sloping porch and rolled from there to the arms of three policemen.

Waukegan, Ill.—Witnesses were gathered ready to go before a Grand Jury to testify regarding alleged attempts to bribe the jury and venue-men in the trial of Governor Len Small, acquitted of misbehaving State funds last year.

"OLD POSEY" IN HIS LAST STAND

Posses under the leadership of United States Marshal E. Ray Ward brought in twenty-seven of the renegade Plateau yesterday, seven of them in cages.

"Old Posey" eluded the posers, but he is thought to be without food and with but the scantiest supply of ammunition.

His capture is momentarily expected, although he is credited with a determination to expend his last bit of ammunition in a last round of ammunition in efforts to escape.

Every possible avenue of escape known to those most familiar with the country is being guarded.

BOSTON EVENING GLOBE

JACK MILLER OF BRUE, STAR IN 'SALLY'

Doctors Give Up Hope For Mme. Bernhardt

FREQUENT ROWS DRIVE YOUNG STARS APART

ported to have been disillusioned soon after their gay wedding last July at Beverly Hills, the fairland estate of Mary Pickford and Douglas Fairbanks at Hollywood, Cal.

It has been suggested that a separation has taken place. There is nothing to warrant the latest version, but that Jack and Marilyn have had frequent tiffs and are estranged, is admitted by certain confidantes.

SPATS FREQUENT. The truth of the matter is that the popular star of "Sally" and the brother of "Our Mary" began to have spats soon after the knot was tied, and have kept them up at irregular intervals, and rumor has it that "Ma" Miller has entered the list at times in support of Marilyn.

One of the first honeymoon quarrels was right here in Boston after Marilyn and Jack had hurried across the continent to be here for the reopening of "Sally" on last night.

JEALOUSY AROUSED. Marilyn permitted a young man friend to buckle her pumps in the presence of the bridegroom.

According to substantiated versions Jack's jealousy was piqued and he didn't attempt to conceal it.

"Breaker, Mrs. Pickford," he is quoted as exclaiming once, "if there is any buckling or lacing to be done you may have your maid to do it, or I'll attend to it, or you can do it yourself."

Marilyn sent back as good as she got, according to official chroniclers, and, true to family row traditions, "one word borrowed another."

According to substantiated versions Jack's jealousy was piqued and he didn't attempt to conceal it.

It marked an auto party to the North Shore. The quarrel was renewed in a smart grid in Manhattan, and the cloud blazed the honeymoon for days.

QUESTION OF BOSS. There were many such spats, according to intimates. Both are quick-tempered and impulsive and mutually positive and independent, say their friends.

"The trouble from their wedding day," said a young woman friend, "is that they are too hot to be hot and have to understand."

Another confidante said Marilyn once threatened to sue a bill for a $2,000 emerald coat which, with gold buttons and other feminine ornaments, was included among the bridegroom's gifts to the bride.

They say Marilyn was surprised to learn that the other gift which Jack gave her had not been paid for. Within a few weeks of the wedding, the first wife of Jack Pickford, who ended her life in Paris, used to have to act as a go-between for the young scene here, who loathed such details.

Jack Pickford says he has seen each other since Christmas. Jack is at Hollywood busy with film affairs. Marilyn is with "Sally" in Chicago. She is supposed to be with her mother. Asked the other day whether she had any marital differences with her husband, Marilyn is quoted as saying: "I desire to consult my attorney before making any statement."

Irrespective of the merits or demerits of the case, the fact remains that Jack Pickford is not turning up the telephone and telegraph wires these days as they did during their honeymoon.

Mr. Saunders said he would not deliver today on the assumption the stock has been generally purchased and within the proper time limit for the proper delivery of stock out on my contract as may be determined later by court decree.

Commission Finds Tights Indecent; Nude Artistic

Paris, March 25.—The government commission which is investigating the alleged indecency of Mary Pickford's "All the Ladies" revue, at the Palace Theatre, has decided that Pickford's "Ladies" must take off the tights which they had donned at the instance of the police censor.

The commission rules that in this case the "tights are vulgarly suggestive, while the nude on the contrary is artistic."

IRELAND'S NEW BUDGET OVER 42 MILLIONS

Dublin, March 25.—(By International News Service.)—President William T. Cosgrave in addressing the Dail Eireann this evening upon Irish finances said for a budget of £17,840,000 pounds sterling against £15,744,000 pounds requested last year, saying expenses have been increased by damage claims and army expansion.

Republicans posted letters in the Catholic churches at Limerick condemning the budget, and other prominent persons to depart within twenty-four hours if the Free State exerts irregular captives.

Boin Captured While Asleep

London, March 25.—The Belfast correspondent of the Evening News says of the capture by Free State troops of General Boin, one of the chief revolutionary leaders:

"Boin's arrest came as a timely climax to his career of crime. With three companions he was captured while sleeping in a room at the Rock House, County Sligo, in which he was placed on trial for his life. In the morning his captors among them the ex-acting of Boin, when these civilians were killed."

"Boin spent his honeymoon in a way the Anglo-Irish Commission in Cavan after his romantic marriage to a pretty Limerick colleen, who was captured upon abducting his daughter."

MOONSHINE NEW IRISH PROBLEM

Belfast, March 25.—The manufacture of illicit whiskey is being carried on vigorously in the districts around Moonshine, according to reports reaching this city.

Pretty colonies in attractive Irish costumes assist their countrymen by acting as agents. They act and knit upon the streets and have arranged such a perfect system of signaling that the police cannot approach within five miles of any particular spot without warning of their presence.

Jack Pickford says he has seen each other since Christmas. Jack is at Hollywood busy with film affairs. Marilyn is with "Sally" in Chicago. She is supposed to be with her mother. Asked the other day whether she had any marital differences with her husband, Marilyn is quoted as saying: "I desire to consult my attorney before making any statement."

WILSON TRIES TO MAKE SENATOR

Denver, Colo., March 25.—Woodrow Wilson today asked Governor Owen to appoint Thomas Thompson, Democrat, to a seat in the United States Senate to succeed Samuel D. Nicholson, Republican, who died Saturday night. Thompson is a member of the Federal Trade Commission.

Governor Owen announced he had received the following telegram from the former President:

"I trust you will not think it an unwarranted liberty if I express the hope that you will select my friend Thompson for the vacant seat in the Senate."

DEMAND SACCO BE FREED

French Labor Extremists Declare Judge Thayer Prevents Retrial

By the Associated Press. Paris, March 25.—Labor unionists of extreme tendencies in France have resumed their agitation in favor of Nicola Sacco and Bartolomeo Vanzetti, convicted of murder at South Braintree, Mass., and are organizing meetings, the advance posters of which bear the caption: "Liberty or death."

These posters declare that "the infamous Judge Thayer (Judge Webster Thayer of the Massachusetts Superior Court) spends his posturing the retrial of Sacco and Vanzetti in spite of the fact that one after another, the prosecuting witnesses have returned."

Representations of the activities of the workers and anarchists throughout the world are generally directed at these meetings, particular stress being placed on the cases of Sacco and Vanzetti and the sentence to hanging of 173 peasants in India.

The French action in the Ruhr is also repudiated by the labor extremists.

The police as a rule attach no more significance to these meetings than to the usual run of extremist gatherings, but a discreet guard is still maintained over Ambassador Heric's residence.

Frequent callers at the embassy have become familiar with the faces of several individuals who seem to be sometimes just loitering in the vicinity and at other times looking for a street number.

These plain clothes men, stationed there to watch visitors to the embassy and see that no extremists are admitted. They are specialists in following anarchists in France, most of whom they know by sight.

ARRESTED 'BRIBING' N. Y. DRY AGENTS

New York, March 25.—Former Assistant United States Attorney E. Paul Tassell was arrested today on prohibition headquarters where he was alleged to have passed a letter of $200 to prohibition agents Joseph King and Edward Crab to approve a permit for the withdrawal of whiskey in the warehouse of a distiller.

Tassell himself had had trouble with prohibition forces while working in the interest of clients who wished to withdraw alcohol for business and not beverage purposes.

He said the prohibition men refused to approve the permit unless paid money and that after giving the money to King and Crab today, he told them he intended to comply with them. Tassell said, they turned tables on him.

NEW HAVEN STRIKE CLAIMS $455,000

New York, March 25 (By International News Service).—Testimony outlining the costs of the railroad strike last July was given today by employees of the Lake Valley and the New Haven roads when hearings were resumed here for collection of damages to be placed Monday in Chicago in the action for a permanent injunction against strikers.

Claims against the New Haven for damages in shipment of perishable goods were approximately $455,000 since last July and were only $150,000 for the year previous to the strike, according to testimony of Gordon Marks, in charge of the Company's Freight Claims Department.

BAK TELLER, ON PROBATION, FLEES

Willis E. Hutchinson, former paying teller at the Bank City branch of the Exchange Trust Company, was land for a month.

"I know where he is," she said. "He is out of the State. I must not say any more."

Hutchinson is son-in-law of R. A. Fred Conover, wealthy merchandise broker. Restitution was made to the bank.

Bernhardt Recalls Past Glories as Death Rites

Paris, March 25.—A public scene in Mme. Bernhardt's sick chamber was described today by Georges Michel, an old friend of the actress.

He visited Mme. Bernhardt as he entered the chamber Mrs. Norman, who is supervising the nurse, said: "Do not talk to her too much. She is more tired than she will admit. Anyway, she does not hear very well now."

Mme. Bernhardt, who overheard him, broke in weakly, "Yes, I have got a ringing in my ears all the time. In what play was that where I had such a frightful and disgraceful ringing in my ears?" I cannot recall it."

Mme. Bernhardt was silent a moment, then continued: "Have the moving picture people come yet? I find moving picture making a great deal of noise with their crank constantly turning and myself registering gestures without saying anything."

"My dear friend, then why do you do it?" asked Michel.

"Really, I don't do it; the others do it for you," replied Bernhardt. "And then they turn the crank and you know. It is so tiresome to me. Besides I am 100 years old. I am tired of it. I do not go to America without leaving Paris, that is, my pictures will go there. I would like to know what I would give to make in America if I would go there."

"I shall have to continue my work," she added in a voice scarcely audible.

Shanley's Cafe Closes Up

New York, March 25.—Shanley's lights have gone out. Shanley's was the first of the White Light restaurants. It is one of the last to close its doors last night. It has followed a chain of others, the Knickerbocker, the Rialto, the Broadway "Institutions" that were fire and devoured from inside and formed one of the chief features of the Broadway that was.

WANTED—1,561 LIARS TO SHAME ANANIAS

THE LIFE SEATS FOR EXPERTS

Twelve Days More to Qualify
In Boston American
Test

The date: April 5.
The play: "Lightnin'."
The place: Hollis Street Theatre.

The idea: Everybody who has a lie printed in this contest, or who has submitted a lie to this publication in this contest, will get a free ticket to this special matinee. At the end of the contest a two dollar gold piece will be awarded to the three best lies submitted.

As Anonymous Liars sent in this one:

"A few years ago I made a discovery—one that is worth thousands of dollars to any baseball club. Many baseball fans believe that Ruth is a great batter. In fact, I am the only one besides Ruth himself that knows different. A few years ago I was experimenting on radio, something to draw the sound from after toward my receiver. I had an idea that a certain mineral I discovered was for some use, and I set to work and had some of it ground to a fine powder and covered my receiving wire with it. But I found to my dismay it did not help any. "Just as I had finished covering my wire and was about to leave the room, one of my chums came in and wanted me to go with him and play a game of ball. I hurried out just as I was, without washing my hands. You know how it is with boys of my age, baseball first and wash up afterward. When we got to the ground, I was the first one up to the bat. I never was much good with the stick, as we call it. But the first ball up to me, surprise and to the surprise of all those present, I knocked for a homer, and every time I went to the bat, that afternoon, I hit the first ball pitched to me. What a hero I was to the boys of our club that afternoon. "After the first few homers, when I took my place at the bat, instead of taking careful aim at the ball, I merely shot my eyes and slammed the bat, but the result was the same. That bat met the ball every time. Then I began to realize there was a reason. I soon discovered that it was that strange mineral powder with which I had been testing my radio. "My discovery was made. Now to put it to use. I show, to Ruth,

Mons. Frank Chase and his lovely dancing partner, Yes, if Mr. Chase can spare the time from his duties as secretary of Boston's Watch and Ward Society, he will do his stuff between the acts of the Special Liars' Matinee of "Lightnin'" at the Hollis Street Theatre, April 5th. being a powerful man, was the best one to approach. I gave him some of the powder. It proved to be the making of Ruth that season. The next season he would not give me the price I asked for the powder. You all know the result. "I have a large quantity of this powder for use this Spring. If any of the ball clubs want it, let them come forward and pay the price. Ruth will probably be the first one to approach me and Mr. Fan, when you see Ruth rubbing his hands along the bat, as the ball approach, you may depend he has paid the price for this wonderful magic powder." By Esther A. Harkin, No. 4 Rowe street, Dorchester. "You'll have to count me out of your contest. I am stenographer for a lawyer and taking dictation from him for no long has absolutely spoiled me as a liar. By Clara L. Smith, No. 54 East Eighth street South Boston: "Did you ever wonder who makes up the cover beds? That's me. Every morning, bright and early, as soon as the oysters get up, I put on a diver's suit, go deep into the salty sea and make up every oyster's bed. From E. E. Robbins, Shawmut avenue extension, Cohasset, Mass.: "Last September I bought a new box and began to dig my acre of potatoes, but had gotten only a few hills dug before there came up a big thunder shower. One of the first lightning flashes knocked me for a goal and when I came to the blade of the hoe was still in my hand, but the handle was driven clear to the shank into a dent in the meadow where I lay. I pulled out and cut the handle and whodda think—you can't a quiver of oil which has kept spouting refined gasoline since every day since." By Edward Bennett, Jr., of Wollaston: She does not whistle, shout or hum. And watch the clock all afternoon. She does not chew incessant gum. She does her job and does it soon. She does not wear ink on her face. She is no faint of endless notes. Our office is a different place. Try office girls instead of boys. ARTIST SORRY ELECTROCUTED FOR DOWNFALL ON ELECTRIC CAR ROOF

New Rochelle, N. Y., March 26.—Spencer Clark, of Bridgeport, Conn., was electrocuted today while stealing a ride on the top of a New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad train.

He left the Connecticut city a few days ago to join a circus in New York.

The flash of a short circuit caused the train to be stopped here with the result that his body was found. He had come in contact with the overhead electric feed wire which furnishes power for the train.

A special delivery letter signed "Ethel" was found in his pocket, imploring him to come back to Bridgeport as she "loved him more than ever."

"Her father asked me to act as a sort of guardian of the girl and I tried to, but it was futile. I had no control over her once she joined her outside companions. After she met a young Japanese I lost all control and influence over her."

"Her case is a real tragedy for an so young and pretty with such devoted parents and such bright promise. It is a glaring example of what dope and the underworld will do to a good girl and how swiftly."

"I often saw her father cry in his presence. He was forever giving her money and presents and sending her letters urging her to mend her ways and become the girl she was wanted to be."

" Evelyn had promised over and over again to reform, but forgets her vows the next minute."

MASHER IS GIVEN MONTH IN JAIL
King Ralph, of Winthrop, was sentenced to one month in jail today by Judge Sullivan of Municipal Court on the charge of annoying and molesting. He was arrested at the corner of Washington and Winter streets, where, it is alleged, he was annoying girl shoppers.

Our Most Precious Asset

The confidence of our customers is our most precious asset. To insure and protect it is the most important part of our business.

So in every purchase we make, and in every sale, we are guided by the knowledge of this. To give you fair and honest value is selfishness and self-protection on our part. If once we lose your faith, we have lost something which may never be found again.

Our antique department is full of treasures of bygone days. Every piece, whether glass, china, silver or furniture, is carefully selected by men who have made the study of old pieces their life work. Therefore any article on display is authentic and as represented.

The handling of diamonds, too, requires long years of experience and training. Only experts such as you find in our diamond department know when the color, cutting, and shape of a diamond are perfect.

FLOYD JOHNSON BATTLES RAY THOMPSON TONIGHT

HEAVYWEIGHTS CLASH THE ARMORY

By JACK CONWAY.
Floyd Johnson, who many men will see the affairs of the ring will be the next heavyweight champion, battles Ray Thompson, of New York in the feature round bout at the Armory A. 2's show tonight.
Johnson, who has been in Boston since Saturday, says he will win. And when you ask what will be the outcome of a fight if he meets Dempsey, he also says: "I shall win!"
This is not due to overconfidence. The youthful Californian merely has faith in himself.
After you gaze upon his wonderful physique and study his remarkable ring record, you can see why this twenty-two-year-old six-footer believes that his 160 pounds of fighting flesh and bone can beat down any opposition in the world.
Johnson has beaten every heavyweight he has met since coming here. Bill Brennan, trial fighter of the heavyweight division, was numbered among those crushed by the heavy hitting Californian.
Johnson is a quick, eager fighter, more than Luis Angel Firpo, Argentine heavyweight, who would meet Dempsey. Johnson would probably knock Firpo out inside of fifteen rounds if the two men were to meet at their present stage of development.
Jack Dempsey considers Johnson as the most dangerous of his challengers. He believes that it will be the youthful Californian for whom he will have to train the hardest.

If Dempsey and Firpo meet, the champion will win most of five rounds.
Dempsey and Johnson is another story. If Charley Cook, Johnson's manager, does not rush his protégé along too rapidly, the Californian will have a fine chance to become world's champion. It will take two years to give Johnson the experience he will require to defeat the man who has beat Willard and Georges Carpentier for the heavyweight title. We have enough faith in Charley Cook to believe that he will not permit money to dictate his judgment.

Johnson has been brought along carefully. He has defeated some tough youngsters, while he has never over a veteran heavy-weight. Johnson of course, was the best of the men vanquished by Floyd. Johnson has improved with each bout. This has caused his admirers to gain confidence. They believe that he will win tonight, that he will conquer Bob Finner at the Armory next month and that he will knock Jose Willard in New York on May 12.

There is a strenuous program, but in none of these bouts to Johnson overmatched. If anything, he will have a little the best of things as he looks at the dope sheets.
A large crowd will greet the young Californian tonight. Everybody is anxious to see Johnson in action. The idea was to get a close-up of his amazing speed and heavy punch to power.

There is a great deal of interest in the heavyweight division. This is due to the fact that the fans here have Dempsey will soon be defending his title. The public wants to see which of the challengers would have the best chance of winning if pitted against "Tiger" Dempsey.

The recent bout between Brennan and Firpo in New York has attracted international interest. This was due chiefly to the fact that Firpo comes from Argentina and is anxious to secure an engagement with Dempsey.

There is even more interest in Johnson than in Firpo. "This is because the youthful Californian is generally rated as a better fighter than Firpo. Then, too, he is an American. When Dempsey loses his title, the fight naturally looks like an American will be the one to be crowned champion."

Old-timers will go to Mechanics Hall tonight to compare Johnson with Louis L. Sullivan. Tomorrow they will see what the prize money is worth in their own world or even Dempsey. The same audience would probably also tell you that the heavy drawn cab could outdistance him in the market model racing car. Age does not like to admit that youth can do better than they formerly could be done.

Young Brady of St. Louis and Martin Flaherty of Lowell will meet in the semi-final of ten rounds. There will also be a couple of fights. Jimmy Hennessy of Waltham, Mike Hladina of Boston, will have Jimmy McDonough of South Boston.

EXPECT 100,000 TO SEE FIGHT

By TOM THORP.
New York, March 26.—Final plans for the seating of 100,000 fans at the monster battle now being arranged by Tex Rickard for the Milk Pund at the Yankee Stadium on May 12 were completed today. The huge concrete amphitheater will be transferred into a boxing arena. The ring will be built over the seats occupied by the audience.
The platform will be raised to the height of six feet. This was decided upon so that the 21,000 fans who will occupy the one-dollar seats will have as clear a view of the happenings in the ring as those who are fortunate enough to procure seats close to the ring. Rickard insisted that this large number of dollar seats be placed on sale.
The boxes on the first tier of grandstand seats, as well as those seats on the mezzanine floor, amounting to thirty-five thousand, will be reserved. Ten thousand on the top tier will not be reserved. However, the boxes on the uppermost tier will be reserved. The infield will be filled with thirty-five thousand floor seats.
One thousand will be reserved in the left field stand. This will take care of a record crowd of one hundred thousand persons. Every seat will be built in such a way that no one's view will be obstructed by post, pillar or seat.
Tex Rickard, Colonel T. H. Hodson, J. D. Barrow and a representative of the Mayor's Committee of Women, which is headed by Mrs. Randolph Hearst, inspected the grounds. They heard over the loud speaker what was said by the Yankee Stadium architect. After a thorough inspection they all agreed that the plans were ideal in every way.
Rickard was instructed to order the printing of tickets. The tickets will be placed on sale at the Garden and Yankee Stadium in the course of the next week. Reservations will not be taken for any seat until after the tickets have been printed.
Ray Archer wired Rickard that he would continue his training at Exeter Springs, Me., until a couple of weeks before the time for the former champion to crawl through the ropes to meet Floyd Johnson. This means local fans will not have an opportunity of witnessing the fight in action until around April 25.
It is likely that upon his arrival in Boston on that date he will go out to the Matthews Farm, out at Manhattan, L. I., the spot where Dempsey Carpentier trained his fight with Jack Dempsey, over at Boyle's Thirty Acres.

MIKE O'ROURKE
Luis Firpo, the great South American, who will meet either Billy Make or some other good man in the preliminary to the Willard-Johnson match at the Milk Pund show on May 12, will do his training for the present in the Garden gymnasium. Jimmy De Forest is anxious to move Firpo down to the De Forest home at Allentown, N. J., as soon as possible. However, until the slug cut over the Argentine's left eye heals up he will remain in New York city.
It was announced that Willard and Johnson would go fifteen rounds. The same limit will be placed on the

U. S. SPEEDS UP SUGAR INQUIRY

Washington, March 26.—The government's investigation of high sugar prices, ordered by President Harding, was speeded up today when the Department of Justice in the United States District Attorney's office in New York City, gathered evidence against alleged speculators for presentation to Federal grand jury.

The New York phase of the sugar probe is the most vital part of the campaign of Acting Attorney General Sweeney to determine if "criminal conspiracy is responsible for recent price increases."

The public pays millions. The public has already paid millions of dollars in the form of increased prices for sugar.

Why the consumer must pay a price for sugar is a puzzle for many. The Cuban crop reached 4,000,000 tons last year, creating a present surplus in the world of 10,000,000 tons.

Well, Mademoiselle, as you have not had the nervous attacks since you came here, whereas you used to have them every day, you are cured. Come back sometimes all the same, so that I may keep you going along the right lines.

The feeling of oppression will disappear with the lessons which will disappear when you assimilate properly; that will come all in good time, but you mustn't put the cart before the horse. It is the same with oppression as with heart trouble, it generally diminishes very quickly.

Major-General Enoch H. Crowder, then financial adviser to the Cuban government, was ordered in the scheme to deliver the letter containing the ultimatum of the United States to President Zayas of Cuba.

Despite the fact that such content was never obtained, the "black pack" note was delivered, but Cuban sugar growers refused to limit their crop.

Major-General Enoch H. Crowder, then financial adviser to the Cuban government, was ordered in the scheme to deliver the letter containing the ultimatum of the United States to President Zayas of Cuba.

Washington, March 26.—Secretary of the Navy Denby and the Comptroller-General of the United States were jointly arrayed against each other in a battle over the respective powers and authority in spending the Government's money.

Denby has written the Comptroller-General branding the latter's efforts to control naval expenditures as "inconsequential with the statute which declares that the Secretary of the Navy is the head of the Navy Department."

Shouting under this reply, Comptroller J. R. McCarl planned today to make a full report to President Harding and Congress on alleged local disbursements by the Navy Department.

Attorney-General Daugherty may be asked to arbitrate the dispute. The comptroller general is head of the general accounting office, a governmental agency charged with the duty of all claims of, against the United States.

The trouble with the Navy Department arose when Comptroller McCarl ordered a navy paymaster to withhold the pay of a retired naval officer on account of alleged over-payments previously made to him. The disallowing officer refused to do this and McCarl demanded a "report" from Secretary Daugherty.

CIVILIZATION SHOWN IN MEXICAN RUINS

Mexico City, March 26.—A dispatch to Knoxville from Mexico City, quotes the American archaeologist Silvanus Mayer as saying that the Maya ruins in that province date back centuries before Christ. Mr. Mayer expressed the opinion that the remains of this ancient civilization are unequalled in the world and that they show a higher degree of culture.
